Waterman AHW Wins 2009 Export Award

Waterman AHW Consulting Engineers has been named winner of the National Export Award, Building and Construction Services under $25 Million category at the Master Builders Australia National Awards. Waterman AHW was announced as winners at the awards evening held on the Gold Coast in Queensland on November 7th 2009.

Waterman AHW was granted this award by the judging panel in recognition of providing a comprehensive range of consulting engineering services in the United Arab Emirates, Vietnam, Russia, Poland, Kazakhstan and Africa.

The award was presented to Godfrey Frederick, Waterman AHW's Business Development Manager, who commented, "We are fortunate to have such a healthy export profile from Australia. Winning this award is a reflection on the quality and dedication of the engineers and management teams that we have in Australia which allows us to work so successfully overseas"
